

Advertisement for the post of JRF

Walk-in-interview will be held at Department of Biotechnology, Heritage Institute of Technology, Kolkata on 24th February, 2016 for one post of JRF under the WB DST-sponsored project on “Screening of potential biofilm producer isolates from clinical samples and in vitro determination of killing kinetics by application of some herbal agents with known anti-inflammatory action and application in animal model”.

Emoluments: As per guidelines of WB-DST, Government of West Bengal.

Duration: Three years.

Essential Qualification: Master Degree in Life Science (Biotechnology / Botany/ Zoology/ Microbiology) or allied disciplines from a recognized University.

Desirable: Previous research experience for two years having worked on similar working area with at least one accepted paper in an indexed journal. Practical experience with basic microbial techniques, animal handling, and plant extract purification.

Venue: Central building room no: 308, at 11am.

Interested candidates shall bring their CV along with original mark sheets at the time of interview.

(No TA /DA will be paid for attending the interview. The appointment will be purely on temporary basis.)

Sd/-

The Registrar