

Chairman's Message

India holds an important place in the domain of world education industry. India's is the third largest higher education system in the world and has the potential to grow further. In this educational scenario, Heritage Group of Institutions has made their benchmark in the world class education systems around the globe. This year once again, The Heritage School was honoured by Education World as the top co-ed day boarding school in the State. Moreover Careers 360 has given the prestigious rating of AAA+ to our School. In addition to all these accolades, THS once again received The Telegraph School of the Year Award for excellence in education in 2016. One of our students of B.Tech, Ms. Mayurakshi Mukherjee of Heritage Institute of Technology (HITK) brought laurels to our Institution and also to our country by getting selected from West Bengal Rowing Federation of India for the 2016 Asian Indoor Rowing Championships. HITK also fetched laurels to KBT by winning the All India PRSI Award for ICABET 2016 (An International Conference organized by HITK) in the category of "Best Event Managed during the year" at the ALL India PRSI Conference 2016 held at Kolkata from 16th December till 18th December 2016.

These achievements mark a significant milestone in the history of Heritage Group of Institutions which would not have been possible without the efforts of the students, faculty members and staff of The Heritage family who toiled day and night to place our institutions in the Hall of Fame. Kalyan Bharti Trust feels proud of the Heritage family without whom the unique journey of 15 years towards excellence would have been impossible. We have concrete future plans to establish a Medical College, a Design Institute and finally a world class university to make our legacy in quality education prominent in this part of the country.

We have miles to go before we reach the final destination.

Thank you and Wish you a Happy 2017.

Shri H.K. Chaudhary

This was the flavor of the season at Heritage. To commemorate 15 years of its unique journey, HITK organized a three-day National Conference on ‘Recent Advances in Science & Technology’ sponsored in association with TEQIP-II on 27th Sep. ’16. The Conference was addressed by the Chief Guest, Padma Bhushan Dr. Bikash Sinha, Homi Babha Professor, Former Director of SINP and VECC. The other dignitaries were Shri Vikram Swarup, Vice-chairman, Kalyan Bharti Trust, Prof. Ajoy Ray, Director, IEST, Shibpur, Prof. Kankan Bhattacharya, Ex-Director, IACS, Kolkata, Mr. Shyamsundar Bang, Executive Director, Jubilant Life Sciences, Noida and Emeritus Professor, Department of Chemistry, HITK, Prof. D.C. Mukherjee.

In his opening address, Dr. Pranay Chaudhuri, Principal, HITK spoke about the developments of the Institute during the last 15 years. Prof. Ajoy Ray, during his inaugural speech, spoke about recent developments in science and technology stressing on the increase in use of smart devices. He also spoke about intelligent networks, recognition of patterns in analyzing data that will help in solving many problems. Dr. Bikash Sinha spoke about the relationship between science and technology and their inseparability from each other. Technology is used in science to invent new things to benefit mankind. He stressed upon the importance of Nuclear Energy and emphasized on the reasons behind climate changes, focusing more on green energy that will help in solving energy crisis. Prof. Kankan Bhattacharya elucidated about the sea change brought about by mobile phones. He emphasized on the early green revolution followed by white revolution leading to abundant supply of milk and then the pink revolution which created phenomenal changes in the pharmaceutical industry.

Later on Mr. Shyamsundar Bang spoke about the feasibility of investments in capital intensive projects for research and development giving the discussion a commercial angle and also touched upon the applicability of science and technology in the economic growth of the Nation. “The phenomenal development of science and technology will help us to create knowledge from the vast data,” said Shri Vikram Swarup during his address in the inaugural session.

The final day witnessed a panel discussion on ‘Innovations in Science & Technology’ which was moderated by Prof. A.S. Kolaskar VC, The Neotia University. The panelists were Prof. Siddhartha Dutta, former Pro-VC, Jadavpur University, Prof. D.K. Banwet, VC, University of Engineering & Management, Kolkata and Prof. D.K. While Kolkata was engaged in pre Durga Puja preparations, the Department of Media Sciences at The Heritage Academy was busy holding an International Workshop in collaboration with 'Talk 360' and India Blooms News Services (IBNS) on 2nd Oct. '16.

Journalism students from several Kolkata colleges along with faculty members with an urge to upgrade their knowledge participated in this event. Mr. Sujoy Dhar, Group Editor, IBNS, Ms. Jayalakshmi Sengupta, Editor, Niyogi Books and Consulting Editor, IBNS, Mr. Pradip Bagchi, Senior Editor, TOI, New Delhi and Ms. Laura Ungar, Senior American Journalist, USA Today, Washington were the speakers. The recent Uri attacks that caused a thaw in Indo-Pak relations was discussed as a case study of news reporting. The students opined that such attacks would result in a sharp fall in the economic growth of both the countries thus affecting the common man adversely. Examples of follow-up stories about the Uri attacks were discussed like the effect of such attack on the film industry, economic growth, sensex and many more. The workshop also stressed on the art of crafting a new story with the latest innovations in the field of journalism. Use of social media like You Tube can be actively used to make the stories more lively and interesting.

Apart from these, television journalism, blogging, digital media and search engine optimization techniques were also discussed. Ms. Ritusmita Biswas, CEO of Digital Brands also interacted with the students about social media marketing and branding. "We have been organizing these workshops since many years and our motive is to give a practical insight to the students of journalism," said Mr. Sujoy Dhar, Group Editor, IBNS.
